

INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF SOCIAL STATISTICS (IJSS)

About the Journal

The International Journal of Social Statistics (IJSS) is a double-blind peer-reviewed journal that is freely accessible and published by the Department of Social Statistics at the University of Sri Jayewardenepura in Sri Lanka.

The journal provides a platform for disseminating knowledge on theoretical statistics and the practical application of statistical techniques across various disciplines. Additionally, it welcomes empirical research papers that offer quantitative insights into statistical works.

The journal aims to promote global scientific collaboration and mutual understanding among its diverse audience, including academics, professionals, social statistics practitioners, and students who are interested in statistics theory and practical applications.

IJSS publishes twice a year in January and July, and welcomes original research conducted in both Sinhala and English languages. The journal is supported by a distinguished editorial board consisting of renowned local and foreign experts.

The e-journal is uploaded and publicized on the official website of the University of Sri Jayewardenepura.

Aim and Scope

The main goal of IJSS is to promote and enhance the use of appropriate statistical methodologies in various fields, both in theory and practice. It aims to provide a platform for sharing outstanding research findings and welcomes submissions from diverse disciplines such as Social Science, Natural Science, Life Science, and others. By encouraging the integration of statistical methods in interdisciplinary research, IJSS aims to foster a comprehensive understanding of statistical applications across multiple fields.
